THE GRADUATION CLASS

NINETEEN TWENTY-NINE

Eagle Dedication

THE mood of the West has ever been one of achievement and progress as exemplified by the ambitious and progressive spirit of its people. Bell High School represents this spirit by moving steadily and honestly toward the goal of achievement as signified by her motto, "Honor lies in honest toil."

Strengthened and inspired by the qualities of him whose every thought and effort have been constantly for the welfare and progress of this school, the Class of Twenty-nine dedicates this Year Book to that splendid leader, teacher and friend, Claude L. Reeves, Principal of Bell High School. May its theme of progress be typical of him, a true son of the West.

CLAUDE L. REEVES, Principal

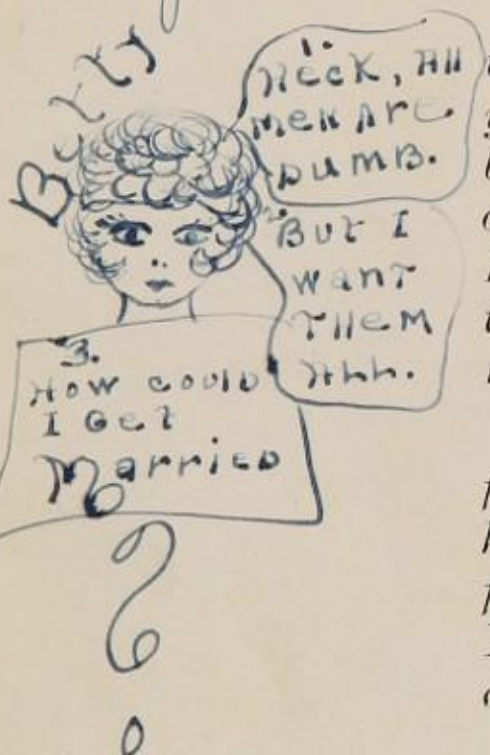
Foreword

AS time goes on, the many happenings of each succeeding school year will fade away and in their place will come only memories. Just so civilization changes and with it the minds of each generation who are shifting their lives to the progress of time.

Life to the youth of today is dynamic; alive with its hazards, its color and its freedom. To modern youth there is a deep emotional tone in the rythmic, beautiful sweep of the airplane and the throbbing of powerful engines in modern industry. Bell High surrounded on all sides by the pulsation of the industrial world is to take her place in this far-reaching vista of ever-changing cities.



The result of this progress which has come forward through age-old customs and conventions has given to the Class of Twenty-nine the inspiration for the art motif which embodies the spirit of this Year Book—the futuristic art which gives promise of the greater freedom yet to come.

And, if in later years when you have entered this world of industry and progress, a look through these pages brings a smile reminiscent of old associations and friendships of your happy life at Bell High, this book shall not have been in vain.

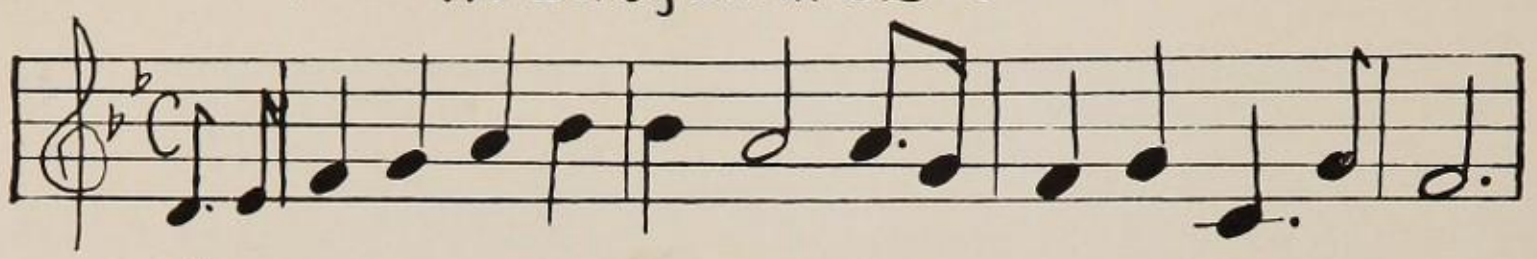
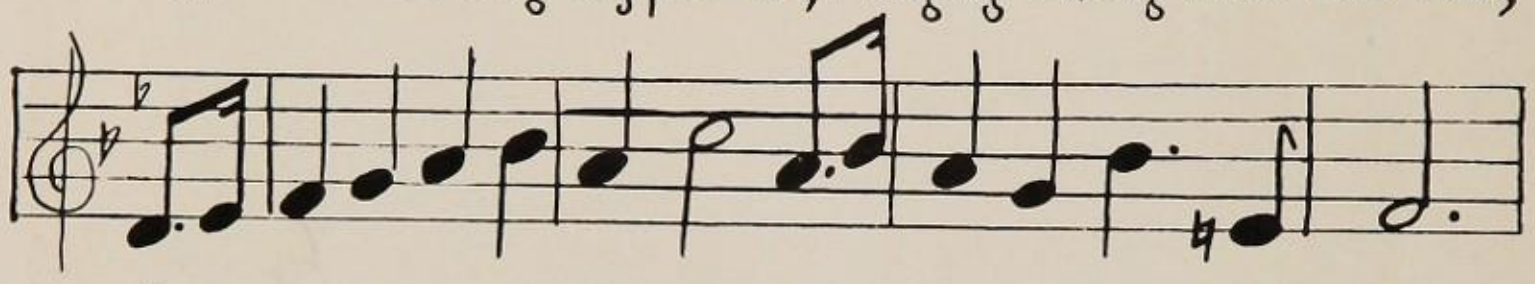
BELL ~ HIGH

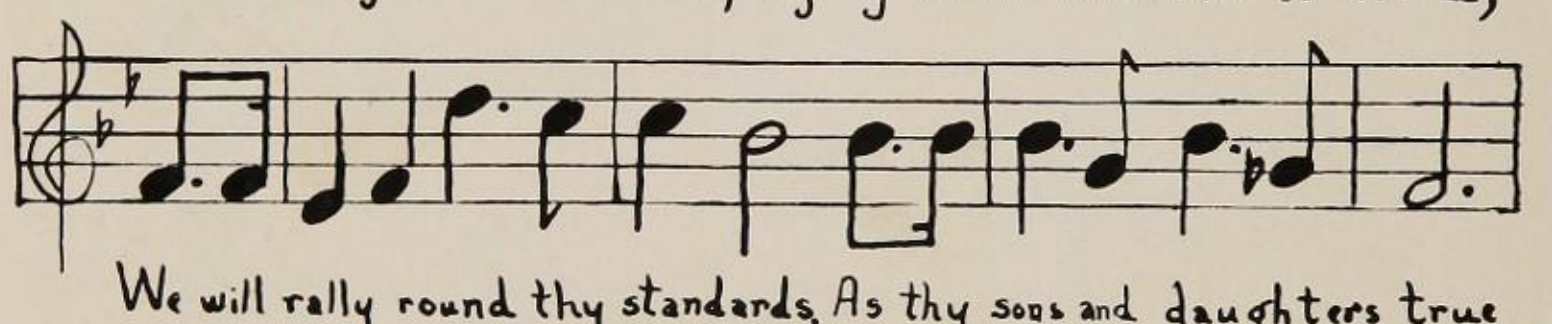
Tune: Orange and Black
Words: By Emma Brown



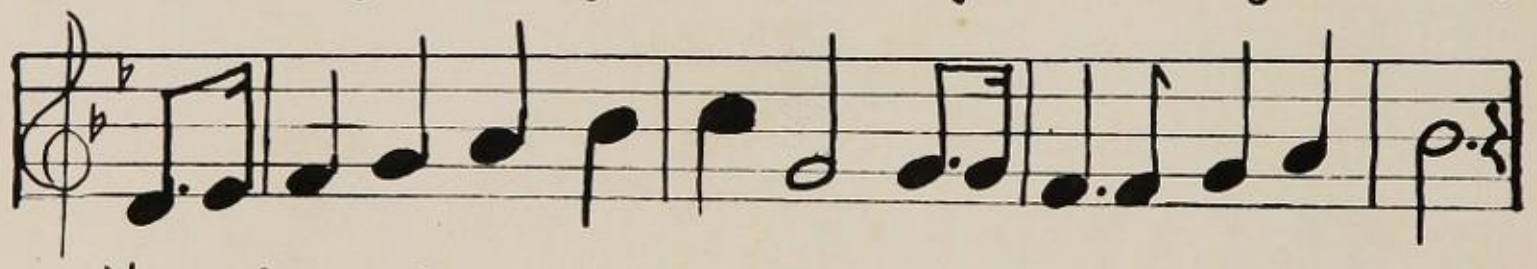
We unite to sing thy praises, Pledging willing heart and hand,



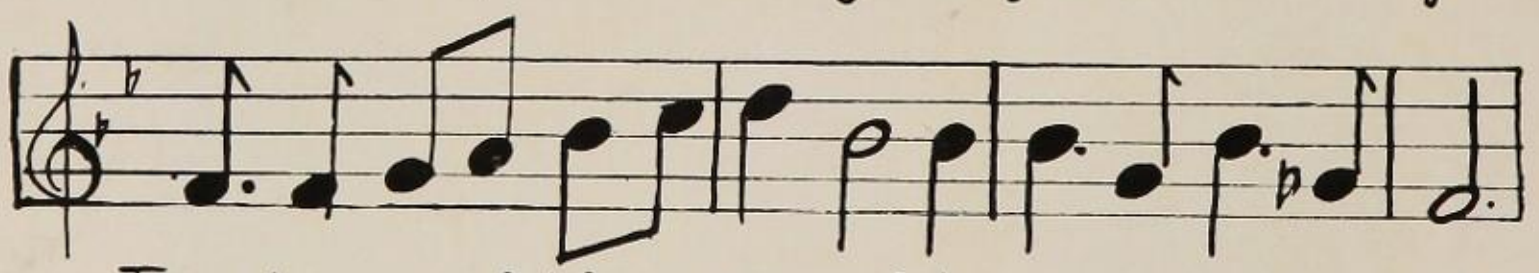
Ever ready to defend thee, By thy name beloved to stand;



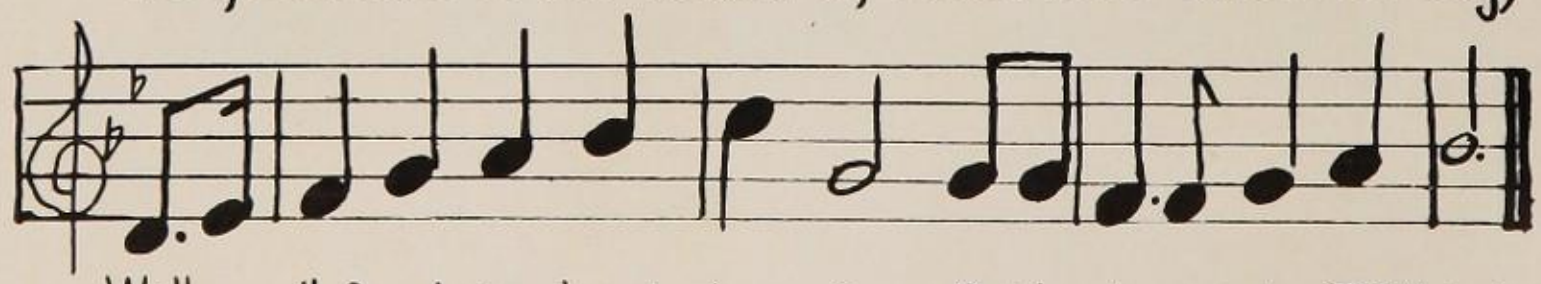
We will rally round thy standards, As thy sons and daughters true,



Vie on fields of sports and learning, Winning laurels fair for you:



Then, when cares of life o'ertake us, And sorrows cloud our sky,



We'll recall fond high school mem'ries, Golden days at dear BELL high.

ADMINISTRATION

MRS. RENA I. PARSONS,

Vice Principal's Message

TO the Members of the Graduating Class:

May I extend to you my hearty congratulations on your achievements during your high school career. You have the honor and distinction of being the first class to spend four years in our school which began its existence but four short years ago with a student body of two hundred fifty, and offered two years of high school work. Our school population has more than trebled since that time, and new buildings are now under construction to take care of this increase in growth.

Each member of your class has built something into its character and has helped shape its destiny. In athletics you have already won enough points to assure us of winning the large Marine League cup which is to be awarded to the school with the highest achievement in all branches of athletics. You have attained excellence in scholarship, adding eleven new names to our honor roll during the last year.

You have dedicated this edition to your friend and principal, Claude L. Reeves, a man of the West, one who cherishes the ideals developed by the early pioneers—honor, courage, loyalty, and self-sacrifice.

May you cherish the same ideals as you continue to be real pioneers in the industrial world. In this age of greater freedom, when dynamic changes are taking place in all lines of industry, may this great, fine, spirit of youth, with the determination to do your best at all times, lead you to the goal of achievement.

RENA I. PARSONS.

Executive Board and Student Body Officers

EXECUTIVES of the Student Body for 1928-1929 assumed the reins of government with enthusiastic determination which, with the co-operation of the students and faculty, carried Bell High School through an unusually successful year.

Acting in legislative, executive and judicial capacity with the check of Student Body initiative and referendum this group proved itself capable of handling wisely the activities of the school.

Always the spirit of Bell High School, that indefinable something which cannot be reduced to words, pervaded the assemblies, athletics and other activities of the school.

James Crandall, president for the first semester, and Ralph Pleasant, athletic commissioner at that time, exchanged positions during the second semester. Each handled both positions with remarkable skill and won the love and support of the entire Student Body.

John Knox, a former commissioner of public arts, again discharged the duties of that office the first semester after Chester Haskin resigned to become editor of the school paper, The Chimes. Gordon Isaacson filled the position during the latter half of the year. Lillian Dehlmar was succeeded by Lucile Speck as commissioner of records.

Efficiently enforcing the rules of the Student Body won for Virgil Clarke and Robert Collier justly deserved commendation. Thelma Wigle held the office of commissioner of welfare during the first semester, while Charles Brown was elected for the second semester.

Student Body finances were managed by Elsie Marlette during both semesters.

CLASS OFFICERS

Class of '29

THE class of '29 began its career at Bell when Bell was a unit of Huntington Park. The first semester, presided by Howard Whalen, saw many interesting programs presented through the efforts of Opal Dunham, vice president, and Lucy Bewley, secretary-treasurer. For the second semester Walter Harbert held the reins of government assisted by Dorothy McKinney, with Lucy Bewley again as secretary-treasurer.

A frolic the first semester and a party the second made for an interesting sophomore year. George Brown was president the first semester, Charles Ditchey, vice president; Grace Hodges, secretary, and Agnes Roediger, treasurer. The second semester was carried through successfully by Walter Harbert, Helen Rice, James Crandall and Elda Lokke.

The junior year was honored by presenting the first annual junior-senior banquet. This class has the last set of rings with an individual emblem. For the first semester William Sourbeck led the class with Ralph Pleasant assisting. Maxine Frazier held the post of secretary-treasurer. Rex Cunningham addressed the junior-senior banquet as president in the second semester. Marian Manley was vice president, with Elsie Marlette as class secretary-treasurer.

Beginning the senior year Charles Brown acted as president, Frances Fouke as vice president, and Rex Cunningham secretary-treasurer. Sweaters of green and white were chosen and a senior party planned.

During the second semester Alan Harrison directed class activities, Frances Marlow assisting. Lillian Dehlmar acted as secretary-treasurer. The second annual junior-senior banquet and a senior party were big highlights of the concluding term. A thrilling play of mother love, "Turn to the Right," was chosen as the senior play. Miss Culver and Mrs. Randall were the advisers for the class.

Toast to Seniors

MAY the span of your life like a gay burst of song
Cheer the hearts of the throng as you pass along;
May the gay glancing sunbeams defy every cloud,
As joys lilting laughter re-echoes aloud.
Sunshine alone and never the rain,
Contentment and bliss nor e'er ought of pain
Be your lot on the journey of life!

Alumni

MEMBERS of the first graduating class of Bell high school have indeed branched out in all directions. The first tie that was formed to hold the organization together was the election of officers who have kept in contact with the widely scattered members. They are: Ebert Smith, president; Kathryn McCune, vice president; and Alice Schmidt, secretary-treasurer. Miss Bashore is the adviser. The first alumni event was in the form of a theatre party held at the President theatre in Los Angeles, about three-fourths of the class attending.

As the annual goes to press soon, the details of the alumni banquet to be held some time in June have not yet been decided, but it will serve to establish the precedent of an annual home coming day and alumni banquet.

Colleges and universities have claimed several of the '28 graduates. Billy Allerdyce, Hugh Barnett, and Bill Fodor are attending Santa Barbara college, while Don Nelson is upholding his scholastic standing at Whittier college. Clara Weidknecht is going to U. S. C., and George Heinrich, John Lewis, and Paul Bateman are working hard at U. C. L. A. Mabel Jones, who as the students of Bell High will remember is known as the girl who never received a grade below an A, is making that reputation hold good at the Arizona State Teachers college. Dorothy Holmes is attending Columbia university in New York City.

Four of the alumni are tranquilly sailing the sea of matrimony: Douglas Bruton and Arline Bruton (nee Allen) who were married at the close of school last year, and Anna Frey and Beatrice Patterson, who took the plunge a short time ago.

Ebert Smith, president, is his father's right hand man in the plumbing business. Oona Mae Morgan, Edna Snyder, and Alta Holman expect to be A-1 stenographers in a few months, being on the way to completion of the stenographic course at business college. Merle Lopp has proved himself a true business man, for within a year he has secured a good position in the J. C. Penney store in Huntington Park. All members of the class extend their best wishes to Bell High.

CHIMES STAFF

The Chimes

IN the second year of its life the Chimes, edited by Chester Haskin has endeavored to carry out the policy and aims set by last year's publications. Special editions for the holidays have marked this year as an outstanding one. The journalism class has endeavored to give the students their news when and how they liked it. One of last year's institutions, the exchanging with other schools has been ably taken care of by the exchange editors, Emma Brown and Frances Fouke.

"Pee-Wee" DuPuis edited the sports for the first semester, seconded by Rex Cunningham, while Rex was sport editor for the second semester assisted by Ray Mullins. Doris Love as feature editor gave the humorous stories to the paper.

The advertising and business for the Chimes was handled at the beginning of the year by LeRoy Scott, but upon his resigning George Wagley was appointed, and his work in getting the good will of the merchants aided greatly in the production.

This year for the first time a place was left vacant on the staff by the mid-term graduating of Melvin Parks, staff typist. His place was filled by Mary McGraw, who was exchange editor last year. Kathryn McCune, Robert Gardner, and Adelaide Leudker, were the post-graduates on the staff serving the positions of copy reader, joke editor and reporter, respectively.

Elsie Marlette, assistant editor, and Frances Marlow, managing editor, gave much aid towards producing an interesting paper. Vivian Gardner as society editor dropped journalism at the end of the first semester but her work was carried on by Charlotte Miller.

Girls' League

THE Girls' League of Bell is an organization consisting of all the girls in the school. Its purpose is to further the spirit of good fellowship among the girls; maintain a spirit of service, and offer opportunity for democratic citizenship in the school community.

Sales to raise funds for the treasury were held at practically all games on home grounds and Thursday of each week during the last semester was set aside as Girls' League day.

Welfare work was carried on by the girls at Thanksgiving time—the league giving baskets of food and a sum of money with which to buy some necessities, to several needy families in the community.

The Christmas gift was again sent to the Corona kindergarten, the present being furnishings for the doll house given last year.

The fall and spring conventions held in Sweetwater and Claremont high schools respectively, were attended by the officers and Mrs. Parsons, vice principal.

Throughout the year parties were held which have created interest in social affairs of the league.

The winter officers were: Frances Marlow, president; Elda Lokke, vice president; Emma Brown, secretary; Maxine Frazier, treasurer. Summer officers were: Grace Hodges, president; Thelma Wigle, vice president; Eloise Gaston, secretary; Faye Cohrt, treasurer.

The business of the league is carried on by the four main officers and the executive board, which is composed of one girl from each class.

The executive board for the winter was composed of Leona Forchione, Irene Gill, Faye Cohrt, Thelma Wigle, Nora Mull, Effie Ewing, Clara Riley, Fern Alger, Jane Taylor, Eloise Gaston, and Emma Peck.

Boys' Forum

IN Bell High school this is the organization that is truly representative of the boys of this institution and the Boys' Forum with every boy a member plays the leading role in the political and social life of Bell High school.

It is in this organization that the boys of the school can regulate and discuss their problems and it has become an integral part of Bell's scholastic program to provide this outlet for boys' discussions.

Each year since this society was organized it has been assuming a greater responsibility in the government of the school and in a corresponding ratio its importance has been impressed upon the student body.

The principal social event sponsored by the society and its adviser, Mr. Geyer, was the annual Father-Son banquet, which was held in the high school cafeteria April 19.

The fundamental principle of the Boys' Forum is the formation of friendship and the cultivation of leadership among the boys of the school and under the guidance of Mr. Geyer this phase of the Forum's activity was highly successful.

The officers for the first semester were Opaul Slagle, president; Gordon Isaacson, vice president; and John Provost, secretary-treasurer. During the second semester Stanley McCartney replaced John Provost as secretary-treasurer and Slagle and Isaacson were re-elected.

Scholarship Society

SCHOLARSHIP Chapter 182 of Bell has flourished in both membership and activity during the semester of 1928-1929. With the motto, "Scholarship for Service," as their incentive many members have attained positions of leadership in various departments of student body activities. Miss Cochran, Miss Culver, and Mr. Frederiksen have been most helpful and interested advisers to the society.

March 21, at the annual scholarship assembly Marian Manley, Elsie Marlette, and Chester Haskin were presented with the official federation pin awarded for six semesters of membership, one semester of which must be in the senior year.

Social functions of the year included initiation parties for the new members October 25 and March 8. April 26 and May 31 were the respective dates for the annual banquet and an enjoyable beach party.

Officers for the first semester were: President, Chester Haskin; vice president, Marian Manley; secretary-treasurer, Ariel Nordyke. Capable successors were respectively, Willard Blackinton, Vern Taylor, and Mary Belle Kyle.

Membership roll of the society for the two semesters includes: Janet Bentley, Ethel Blackinton, Emma Brown, Mildred Burress, Genevieve Clarke, Hester Farrow, Gretchen Floeck, Ruth Grimes, Doris Havener, Irene Koontz, Marye Bell Kyle, Lenore Larkey, Louise Lambert, Marian Manley, Elsie Marlette, Elsa Meyer, Mary McGraw, Kathryn McCune, Carol Milson, Ariel Nordyke, Veda Merle Pellerin, Mary Powers, Clara Riley, Reva Robertson, Virginia Lee Settles, Jane Smith, Beulah Stauffer, Geraldine Stratton, Margaret Way, Willard Blackinton, George Brown, Max Friedman, Alan Harrison, Chester Haskin, George King, John Knox, Clark Lewis, William Shubin, Vern Taylor, Robert O'Connor, Jim Reid, and Harris Magnussen.

Debating

DEBATING has been established this year for the first time at Bell High school. All debates held have been inter-school exchange debates, both in the Marine League and outside.

The first debate was with Banning, November 20, on the question, "Resolved, That the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill should be enacted into law." Bell's negative, Margaret Crutchfield and Herbert Bailey, lost to Banning at Banning, and Bell's affirmative lost to the opponents at Bell. The affirmative was composed of Harold Richart and Dale Cress.

The next debate was held on February 20 on the question, "Resolved, That jazz is detrimental to modern youth,"—jazz being defined as the break-down of tradition and convention. Bell's negative, Myron Thomas and Harold Richart, lost to Gardena, and Bell's affirmative, Beryl Kern and Frances Marlow, lost to Banning at Bell.

The third debate of the year was held on Wednesday, May 15, with Roosevelt High. "Resolved, That motion pictures are more detrimental than beneficial to civilization," was the question. Bell's negative, Beryl Kern, Herbert Bailey, and Myron Thomas, won a 3-0 decision from Roosevelt at Roosevelt, and the affirmative team, composed of Margaret Crutchfield, Harold Richart and Dale Cress, were defeated at Bell.

Mr. Frederiksen is the capable debating coach and it is through his interest and work in this activity that it has been given permanent place at Bell.

Officers of the debating squad are: Captain, Harold Richart, and secretary, Margaret Crutchfield.

On April 29, several members of the debating class were privileged to hear a debate between Southwestern Law school and Redlands university.

Orchestra

BELL HIGH points with pride to its well organized orchestra under the direction of Miss Abendroth. It is an important feature at all important assemblies and dramatic productions and its own annual musical production.

John Knox and Richard Powers, violinist and flutist respectively, represented Bell's orchestra in the All City Secondary Schools Orchestra, which entertained guests during Teachers Institute week at the Philharmonic auditorium. The personnel of the orchestra follows:

First Violin—Kathryn McCune, concert master; Carol Nelson, Pansy Ward, Dorothy Beckett, George Low, Leonard Riblett, Ruth Wade, Dorothy Dunn.

Second Violin—R. C. McCullough, principal; Lester Gavon, James Hill, Helen Ljunggren, Mildred Wilson.

Cello—Ralph Crawford, Norren Bailey.

Bass—Emma Brown.

Flute—Richard Powers, June Wilson.

Clarinet—Dorothy Winger.

First Cornet—Sam Berg, Ernest Holle.

Second Cornet—Howard Kraft.

French Horn—Glenn Coffman.

Trombone—Walter Pretzer.

Bells—Mary Powers.

Drums and Traps—Robert Gardner.

Band

BELL organized a band this year for the first time. It is the necessary part of all athletic events, special assemblies and rallies. With Mr. Lippi as band master, this organization made good progress.

Coaches

DURING the past year athletics, under the guidance of Coaches Waite, Geyer, and Smith have played an important part in the development of Bell High school as a recognized leader in interscholastic competition.

Each year the Eagle teams loom more formidable on the horizon of athletic supremacy. Ninety-two is significant of the power of Bell that the first time a big cup for all around athletic superiority was awarded, Bell won it by a safe margin. This cup, the most coveted prize of the year, is awarded to the school whose teams place highest in all sports. Out of a possible 131 points at the end of the track season Bell had a sufficient number of points to cinch the cup without making a bid for baseball championship.

Under the tutelage of Coach Geyer the Eagle pigskin pushers came within an ace of winning the first Marine League football championship for Bell. As it was, they took second place with five victories and one tie out of seven contests.

An undefeated varsity and a championship lightweight basketball team, both coached by Mr. Waite, made the hoop season a great success for Bell. Not to be outdone, Coach Smith's Eagle C's tied for first place while the midgets, coached by Mr. Geyer, also tied for first place honors.

This resume of the season's performances is to prove Bell's success in athletics, and as the school grows larger so the prestige of the Eagle teams will increase; and it is only fair to remember that behind every team is the guiding hand of the coach.

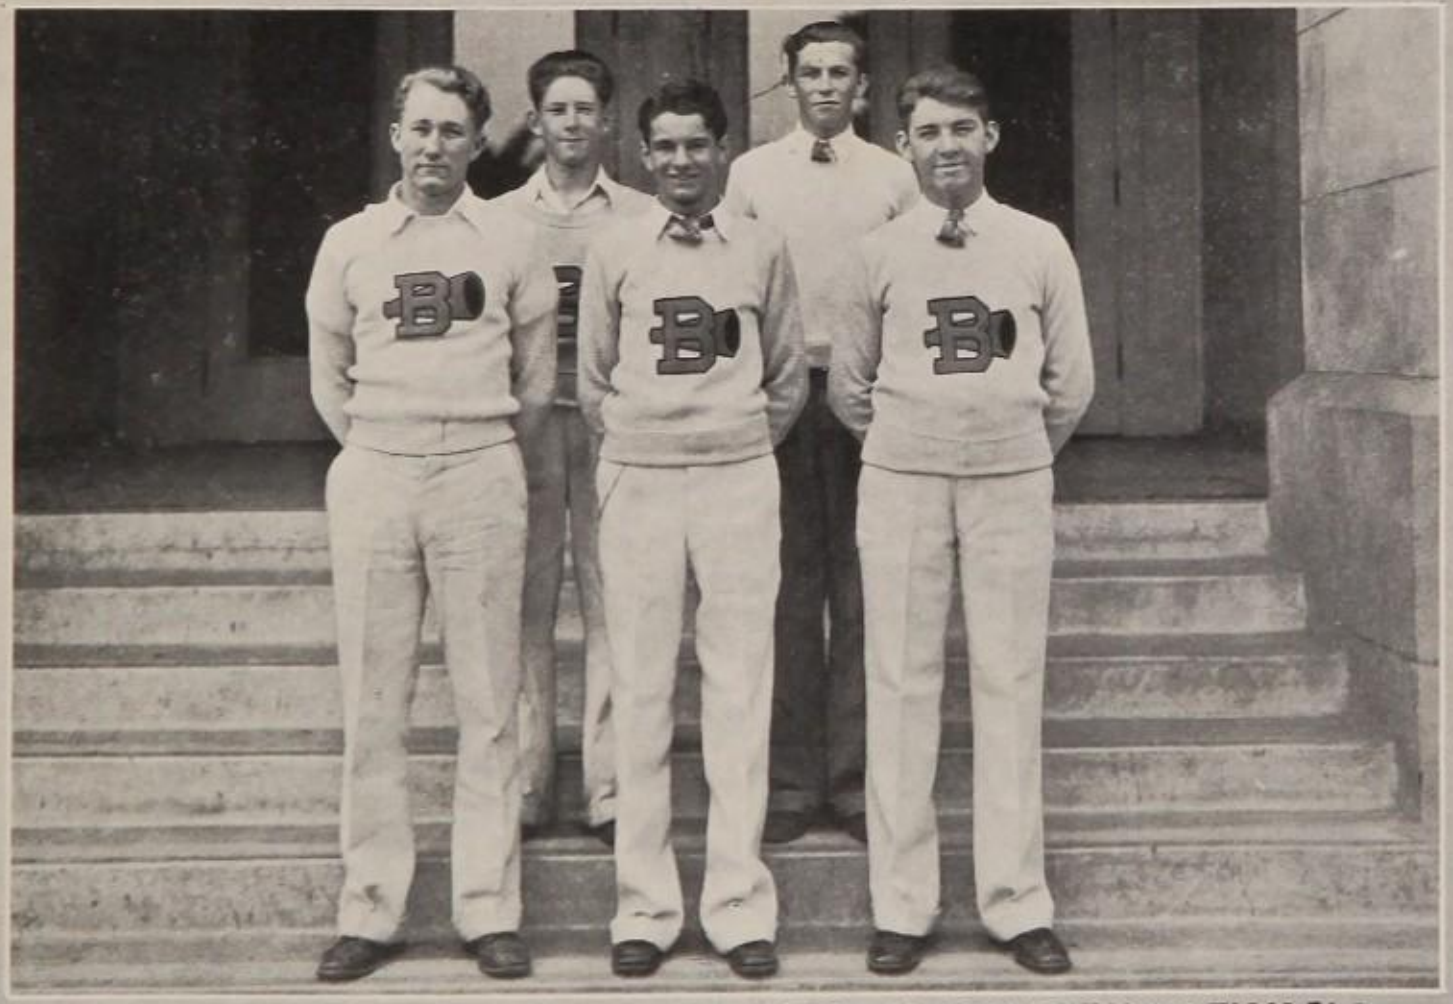
The Yell Leaders

DURING the past year the cheer leaders did wonders toward keeping up the spirit of the students at all athletic activities.

It was they who snapped courage into the rooters at moments when things looked dark for Bell teams. Their fine spirit at all games and rallies helped in every way to bring success to the athletes.

Verne Thomason, Myron Thomas and George Low led the cheering during the first semester and Alan Harrison, Herbert Bailey, George Low and Walter Harbert were the efficient quartette during the last half of the year.

COACHES:
NORMAN SMITH, NOBLE WAITE, LEE E. GEYER



YELL LEADERS: (TOP) VERNE THOMASSON, MYRON THOMAS
(BOTTOM) ALAN HARRISON, HERBERT BAILEY, GEORGE ROWE

Football

FOOTBALL, named by many as the most popular high school and intercollegiate sport was well represented in the Bell High school during the year of 1928.

With an able instructor, Mr. Lee E. Geyer, and eight lettermen as a nucleus, Bell High turned out the most powerful gridiron aggregation in its history.

Bell copped second place in the Marine League, using an intricate system of Warner reverses and spin plays which had many of the opposing teams bewildered as to the solution of them. Bell won five games, lost one, and tied one during the past season.

NARBONNE OPENER

To start the season, Bell opened up with Narbonne on the Eagle's field. The Gauchos held the Marine League championship for two previous years. After two scoreless periods, Narbonne took the lead when Morgison raced eighteen yards for a touchdown. Bell evened the score in the fourth stanza when Slagle scored in a straight buck over center. Slagle converted, making the score 7-6. Later in the game Slagle intercepted a Gaucho pass and raced twenty yards for his second marker, giving Bell a 13-6 edge.

WASHINGTON

Washington and Bell hooked up in a real collegiate battle in the second game of the season. It was the Warner vs. Jones system and reminded fans of a Stanford-U. S. C. battle. This time Bell easily triumphed, taking Washington's measure 25-7. Rohm, Brown, Slagle, and Pleasant were highlights for Bell.

RIIS NIGHTMARE

Certain that Riis could not stop the Eagle eleven Coach Geyer used the reserves practically the entire game. Riis could do nothing against a far superior team and Bell had little trouble winning 13-0 on touchdowns by Rohm and Faught.

GARDENA TITLE BATTLE

Confident that it could maintain its winning stride, Bell journeyed to the Lark's field to play for the championship. After three scoreless periods Gardena opened up on passes and scored three touchdowns to win 21-0. It was Bell's only defeat of the season.

BANNING GRUDGE

Banning, with only a mediocre team, was Bell's next opponent and the Purple and Orange ran roughshod over the Pilot eleven. Bell annexed its fourth victory by a 50-0 score.

TORRANCE SET UP

Torrance came to Bell to try out the Eagle offense system and received a 31-0 surprise. Bell's reserves figured prominently in this contest and outstanding were Rohm, Faught, and Johnny Provost.

JORDAN TIE

Bell and Jordan used exactly the same system, and as Coach Geyer had tutored both teams, he felt that he couldn't lose. Bell neither won nor lost for the game ended in a thrilling 6-6 tie.

Next year should be as big a success as the past season has proven to be as the Eagle eleven will have seven lettermen with which to build a team.

Lettermen's Club

WITH Coach Waite to direct them the Lettermen's Club has kept pace with the progress of the school.

During its early stages as an organized club, its purpose to establish clean-cut athletics, create sportsmanship, besides aiding in all high school activities, was successfully carried out.

This year the branded Eaglets accomplished more than in the two years of its reign over the lower classmen. Taking over the monitor system was the outstanding feature in which the lettermen showed their loyalty as officers of the student-body government.

The annual Eagle banquet turned out to be the most interesting event of the year. Bud Houser, twice United States Olympic champion in the discus, was the guest of honor and his talk on "Experiences as an Olympic Champion" was a treat to the club.

At the beginning of the second semester, the Eagles held their first initiation for incoming lettermen. The officers for last semester were: Ralph Pleasant, president; Marvin Barker, vice president; and Don Faught, secretary-treasurer.

Football Personals

CAPTAIN Marvin Barker—Every team in the league knew that Barker played real football. At guard he played four strenuous seasons of football, shining as a fighter at all times. This is his last year.

Charlie Brown—"Fighting Charlie"—he was called, and lived up to his name at all times. Though one of the lightest guards in the league, he made up for it in fight. Charlie's last year with the Eagles.

Ralph Pleasant—probably one of the best open-field ball carriers in the league this season. He did most of the punting for the Eagles. He will be missed next year.

Aubrey Tapp—Quick end-around play was his specialty when carrying the ball. A very versatile man, could play either end or in the backfield. His last season at Bell High.

Donald Faught—undoubtedly the lightest backfield man in the league this season. He was an excellent interference man though he occasionally skirted the ends for substantial gains. His last season for Bell.

Edwin Wyncoop—a stocky back who could always be relied upon for that extra yard. His work is highly commendable, and his shoes will be hard to fill.

Walter Harbert—though it was his first season of football, made an outstanding end this year. Fighting at all times and throwing men for a loss was his dish. This is his last year.

Opaul Slagle—one of the hardest hitting backs in the league. He always played a heavy game and could be depended on to make the last yard when it was needed for the first down. Watch him next year.

Bob Collier—Bell's forward wall was materially strengthened by the outstanding work of Bob at tackle. When he went into action the opposition knew he was in the game. He will play next year.

Leland Goss—a fighting tackle hard to get through. He often nailed the opposing backs for big losses. He will wear Eagle colors next year.

Clois "Babe" Owens—Babe always managed to get his 195 pounds into every play. At center he was a stone wall on defense and was agile on the offense. He will be back next year.

John Provost—In the fight for end positions Johnny won out and showed up well as the season progressed. His real showing will come next year on the Eagle team.

Other men who played hard and helped the team were Johnny Jordan, Cyril Fox, Johnny Luntz, Henry Kennedy, Jack McNamara, Wade Workman, Ralph Crawford, Don Davis, and Hugh Clark.

Rex Cunningham was the team's manager and arranged for the transportation to all games; he was faithful to all duties that pertained to his office.

FOOTBALL SQUAD

Varsity Basketball

HITTING their stride at the start of the season Coach Waite's varsity basketball artists came through with flying colors to win the championship by merit of their perfect record, seven victories in seven games played.

Washington was the first victim of the Eagle hoopsters. In the opening game of the season the Bell team outplayed the Colonials on the home court to win 35-21.

Narbonne was easily disposed of and after a slow game on the Bell floor the Tigers came out on the short end of a 28-16 score.

In the next game with Torrance, the Eagles met up with stiffer competition and at the close of a rough and tumble contest in the Oiler's gym the Eagles had chalked up a 30-12 victory.

By this time the Bell five had made a regular habit of winning their league tilts and when they met Banning Pilots on the Eagle court they hung up with another victory. The Banning five held them to a 39 to 17 score.

In the next contest the Eagles trimmed the Riis Vikings on the Bell court by a 30-28 score in the hardest game of the season.

On the Jordan court the Eagles came from behind in the last half of a hectic battle and scored a 25-18 victory. This game cinched the championship for the Bell varsity.

The final game with Gardena was perhaps the most thrilling game of the season. Harrison, Arve, Brown, and Campbell played their last game for Bell, and they put everything they had into the contest. When the final whistle blew the Eagles were on the long end of a 26-16 score.

There are six lettermen: Harold Campbell, Alan Harrison, George Brown, Rome Carlucci, Elmer Bacon, and Alfred Arve.

Lightweight Basketball

ONCE under way, Coach Waite's hard fighting Eagle lightweights swept everything before them, and at the close of the season they had won six out of seven games to cinch the first Class B basketball championship for Bell.

The first game of the season was lost to Washington on the Eagle court after a close battle. The visitors collected 18 points to Bell's 13 and captured the contest.

The Eagles met and defeated the fast Narbonne team by a 22-13 score on the home court. Next the Eagles journeyed to Torrance, taking the third game of the season by a 21-11 score.

On the home court after a titanic struggle Kenny Ball sank a field goal late in the fourth quarter to give the Eagles an 11-9 victory over Banning.

The feature tilt of the season with the big Riis team was played on the home court before a record crowd. The Eagle basketballers set a fast pace and captured the contest by an 18-15 score, eliminating the Viking crew from the championship race.

Jordan came closer to defeating the Bell cagers than any team, failing to do so by only two points. The game was played on the dirt court at Jordan and the Eagles annexed a 12-11 victory.

In the last game of the season the Bell hoopsters went wild and annexed the championship by a 32-13 win over the Gardena Larks. There are six lettermen: Gordon Isaacson, George Wagley, Fay Harvey, Kenny Ball, Maynard Chapin, and Keith Frazier.

CLASS B LETTERMEN

Class C Basketball

THE Class C basketball team had a fine turnout at the beginning of the season. At least three complete teams could be made from the excellent show of basketball material eligible for Class C ranks. Coach Smith developed a team which tied for first in games won in the Marine League percentage column and made 3½ points toward the big cup.

Opening the season with less than a week's time in which to organize a team, Mr. Smith sent a team on the floor against Washington and was defeated after a tough game, 14 to 10. In the next game the score was reversed in the Eaglet's favor, winning out 14 to 10 over Narbonne. This game started a winning spell. Torrance came to Bell and was snowed under by a shower of baskets to the tune of 26 to 3. Banning High was the next victim to fall into the Eaglet's talons. They were administered an 11 to 7 drubbing after a hard, rough-and-tumble game. The Jacob Riis team also fell before the winning spell by a 20 to 8 score.

In the next game, the fast Jordan quintet was defeated 9 to 6 in the most exciting game of the season. The Eaglets then closed the season with a 13 to 10 win from Gardena.

The team lettermen were: Captain Ernest DuPuis, forward; John Bewley, guard; Jack McConnell, guard; Roy Roediger, center; Marriett Brown, forward; and La Verne Thomason, forward. The subs who played at some time during the season are Bud Floyd, Walter Weiss, Howard Burke, Jack Nevarrov, Lambert Ferguson, and Wallace Young.

Class D Basketball

COACH GEYER found a credible turnout of inexperienced men for Class D basketball when he took the fleaweights into his hands at the beginning of the season. With but one man back who had had any experience in the game, he proceeded to whip the team into shape for the first game in less than a week.

The first clash of the season was a victory over the Washington team 10 to 2. Practically every man was outplayed in this game. Next, the fleaweights journeyed to Narbonne, where they were defeated 9 to 2 after a tough game. In another one-sided game the Eagles won from Torrance by a score of 17 to 5. Many boys played in this game, gaining experience from their performances. Next, the whisherweights severely trounced the Banning boys to the tune of 14 to 7, and closed the following week with a decisive win from Jacob Riis 12 to 2.

The Eagles' second defeat came at the hands of Jordan 12 to 10. Closing the season, the D's won from Gardena 16 to 4, landing in a tie for first place in league honors, making 3½ points toward the big cup.

The lettermen were: Captain Dorbyn Poertner, Donald Davis, Merwyn Ball, Earl David, Robert Neilson, and Jack Pettus. The substitutes were: Lloyd Howard, Ernest Holle, Guy Sagert, Vearle Ransom, W. C. Cole, and Brooks Farmer.

Varsity Track

EAGLE track aspirants looked forward to a second championship track team this year when, at the beginning of the season, all of last year's squad showed up for the first workouts, plus many other diligent applicants for positions on the team.

In the first meet of the season, the Eagles journeyed to Jacob Riis and met their strong team in a dual affair. The meet was nip and tuck, Bell strong in the field events and distance runs. It was not until the relay was run that the meet was decided: a 54 to 50 victory for the Vikings.

In the next meet, a four-cornered affair held at Riis, the final record was Riis 43½, Jordan 43½, Bell 37, Narbonne 2. The third meet featured Jordan, Bell, Washington and Gardena, finishing in the order named. This meet was held on the Jordan cinder path. The last practice meet the Eagles triumphed over Banning and Washington on the Banning track.

Sixteen Eagle track men were placed in the preliminary meet at Banning on March 19. The Eagles were to be represented in all events but the high jump.

The Marine League meet was held at Phineas Banning High school March 22. Old man weather had the blues and vent his feelings to the full extent, blowing a gale across the field during the entire meet.

Pleasant started off for the Eagles, winning the 880 in 2:07, with Harvey a good third. In the shot put, Slagle was nosed out of first place by inches, he and Collier placing second and third in this event. Tapp managed to grab a good second in the broad jump, one-half inch behind the winner. McCartney was fourth in the pole vault. These boys were the only ones who placed.

Squad members were: Pleasant, J. Harvey, Tolin, Miller, Brown, O. Ferren, D. Ferren, Workman, Isaacson, Klubnikon, Richter, Hayter, McCartney, Bewley, Tapp, Slagle, Collier, Mitchell, Shubin, Ball, Stampfli, Bertola, Provost, F. Harvey.

Class C Track

FINISHING the season by taking fourth place in the league finals at Banning, Coaches Waite's and Smith's Class C cinderpath men earned one more point toward the big cup. All during the season Coach Smith trained the men, while Coach Waite handled the field events.

Winning one practice meet out of four, the team, composed entirely of inexperienced men, went to Banning determined to place, and by sheer fight amassed enough points to capture fourth place honors.

In this meet McNabb upset the dope in the 660 and beat out Smart of Jordan for first in the fast time of 1:35, the Marine League record in this event. Thomason of Bell placed fourth after leading to within 220 yards of the tape.

Smith of Bell captured second in the 100-yard dash. Roediger and Casados took third and fourth in the shot put, while Rohm tied for fourth in the pole vault.

Jordan won the meet with 31 points, Gardena second with 21, Banning third with 13, and Bell fourth with 12 points. The other teams finished: Washington, 8; Narbonne, 4; Riis, 0; Torrance, 0.

There are six lettermen: Joe McNabb, Verne Thomason, Richard Smith, Roy Roediger, John Casados, and Bud Rohm. Others who helped in dual meets are Heintzman, Hancock, Graves, Poertner, Lewis, Tomlinson.

Baseball

BASEBALL as the last sport of the year will fittingly climax a most successful record in athletics set up by the Bell teams. Coach Norman Smith has rounded his team into a well balanced outfit that, as the annual goes to press, is in second place, with the probable championship-deciding contest with Jordan yet to be played.

Four members of last year's team are back and these form the nucleus of the present team that is making a strong bid for the league championship.

The first game of the year was a walkaway for the Eagles. Taking on the Gardena Larks on the home field, the Bell team scored twelve runs while Crandall, veteran hurler, shut out the Larks. Collier banged out a single, a double and a triple.

In the next game the Gardena team came back strong and turned the Eagles away with a 5-9 win. Collier was on the mound for Bell.

Washington was the next victim of the Eagles. In the first game, with Collier and Crandall pitching, the Eagles earned five runs to win 5-2. Carlucci starred at the plate, collecting four hits out of four times up.

The second Washington game went to Bell 10-2; the Eagles chalked up six runs in the first inning, two of these were homers poled out by Collier and Kennedy.

Playing the first game at Narbonne the Eagles trimmed the Narbonne team 7-3 in a hard fought game. The second game of this series also went to the Bell warriors. At the close of ten innings of thrill-packed baseball Bell came out on top of a 5-4 score.

Jimmy Crandall, star Eagle hurler, whiffed twenty-seven batters and banged out a homer in the first game with Torrance while the Eagle batters mauled the Oilmen for eight more runs to win 9-0.

There are eleven lettermen: Crandall, Collier, Carlucci, Owens, Brown, Arve, Jordan, Kennedy, Provost, Frazier, Luntz. Others who just missed making their letters are: Garrett, Campbell, Bewley, Kline, Tubbs, Votaw, Bacon, Fertig.

Tennis

FOR the first time in the history of the Marine League tennis has been recognized as a regular field of interscholastic athletics. Last year a free lance team was organized at Bell that played matches with Garfield, Torrance and Gardena, and though they received no reward at the time, their efforts were instrumental in establishing tennis as a regular Marine League sport.

In the first league match the Bell netmen lost to Gardena 8-0. They next played Washington, and although Cochran and Harrison took first doubles, they failed to win another match and lost 4-3. Playing Narbonne on the home court the Eagle racquet wielders came through with their first victory, winning from the Gauchos 4-3.

The Bell men scored a 4-3 victory over Torrance in the fourth round of the season. Banning upset the dope bucket and whitewashed the Eagles 8-0 on the Bell court. This is the last match played before the annual goes to press with Jordan and Riis yet to meet.

There are six lettermen: Al Harrison and Beryl Cochran, first doubles; Fay Harvey, first singles; Ray Mullins, second singles; Don Davis and George Wagley second doubles. Others who helped during the season are Bob Fouke, Ted Newman, and John Harvey.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION OFFICERS AND COACHES

Girls' Athletic Association

BELL High's Girls' Athletic Association, organized in the latter part of 1927, has rapidly become one of the foremost organizations of the school. Girls who earn not less than fifty points are eligible to membership. Two hundred and fifty points are required for an emblem, 500 for a letter and one star is given for every 200 points after the letter is earned. One hundred points are allowed for each team made. Points are also granted for scholarship and other activities. This association was formed not only to interest more girls in turning out for athletics but to promote a more wholesome and friendly spirit among the classes and other schools.

At the Gardena playday held at Gardena High school March 19, Bell tied with Gardena for first place. Jordan and Narbonne were the other schools present. Due to the fact of the building repairs the Girls' Athletic Association could not hold either a playday or an interscholastic meet on Exhibit Day as was planned.

Irene Samson, president the first semester, was succeeded by Jeannette Bailey. Serena Bayliss as vice president was replaced by Agnes Roediger. The new secretary-treasurer was Mary Streva, who took the place of Lucille Speck. Elda Lokke was re-elected recording secretary.

Miss Dorothy Young is the coach for the after school athletics and has charge of the regular physical education classes. Miss Veda Renius handles all corrective work. Classes in wholesome living are held once a week.

Girls' Baseball

BASEBALL season consisted of a series of twelve games. The freshman class was eliminated in the first round of the tournament. Keen competition for first place between the seniors and sophomore B's has resulted in many close games. To date in the tournament the sophomore B's are leading. They are undefeated and the seniors hold second place, having lost one game to the sophomores. At this game only six of the senior team were present.

The sport manager for baseball was Elma Humphries; captain of seniors, Jean Bailey; captain of junior, Mary Streva; captain of sophomore A's, Dorothy Brown; captain of sophomore B's, Nellie Soverns; manager of the freshmen, Phyllis Zaccaro.

Volleyball

VOLLEYBALL was won by the sophomores when they defeated the seniors 15-7 and 15-10 in the last round. Those on the championship team who earned one hundred and ten points toward their letter are: Eleanor Lindsley, captain; Leanora Carlucci, Genevieve Clarke, Clara Campbell, Margaret Parisi, Oma Cook, Helen Drew, Alma Hartsfield, Helen Brewer, Beth Campbell, Helen Buckland, and Eva La Clear.

Basketball

COMPETING for championship in basketball there were two freshmen teams, two sophomore teams, one junior team and one senior team. Interest in the tournament centered around the three strongest teams, the sophomore A's and B's and seniors. After a hard struggle the sophomore A's were eliminated by the seniors. In the final game played May 1, the sophomore B's triumphed over the seniors 5-3. Members of the winning sophomore B team are: Elma Humphries, captain; Reva Robertson, Alma Hartsfield, Anita Kenny, Frances Olliphant, Annie Vanderlaan, Frances Kizmenski, and Marion Bourbeau, substitute.

For four years the senior team has played hard, winning the championship in their sophomore year. As a fitting tribute to the passing of the grand old seniors, the picture of the senior basketball team was taken for the annual. The team was composed of: Irene Samson, captain; Lucille Speck, Jeannette Bailey, Arlene Rengler, Frances Philleo, Agnes Roediger, Serena Bayliss, and Elda Lokke. Jeannette Bailey was basketball manager this season.

Tennis

BELL HIGH'S girl tennis teams have worked out a tournament whose schedule is so made that winners play winners in both singles and doubles. This has proved an easy and efficient way to select the school teams.

These are Bell's best racket wielders: Lucile Speck, Frances Philleo, first doubles; Elinore Lindsley, first singles; Arline Rengler, second singles; Charlotte Miller, Stella Byrns, second doubles.
